GOVERNOR OTTER PROCLAIMS APRIL "FINANCIAL LITERACY MONTH"

Boise, Idaho . . . Governor C.L. "Butch" Otter has signed a Proclamation establishing April as "Financial Literacy Month" in Idaho, noting that, "The quality of every Idahoan's life is dramatically affected by how you manage your money. Financial education is a key to providing Idahoans the tools to achieve a better financial life. I encourage every Idahoan to take advantage of the great free resources available during the month to learn about the wise use of credit, the basics of saving and investing, home ownership preservation, and the pitfalls associated with financial fraud."

The Idaho Department of Finance, the Idaho Financial Literacy Coalition (IFLC) (www.idahoflc.org) – an affiliate of the Jump$tart Coalition for Personal Financial Literacy – the Idaho Military Financial Alliance, and the Idaho Public Libraries have joined together to sponsor "Financial Literacy Month" in April. The IFLC is a partnership of private and public-sector financial educators. The Department of Finance participates year round in the efforts of the IFLC and is proud to take part in this opportunity to draw attention to the need for all Idahoans to learn money management skills.

A Proclamation ceremony with Governor C.L. "Butch" Otter and members of the Idaho Financial Literacy Coalition is planned on April 1st, at the Idaho State Capitol. The ceremony will kick off Financial Literacy Month and include presentation of awards to students who have won in selected categories of the Piggy Bank Beauty Contest.

The IFLC membership sponsored Idaho's annual "Piggy Bank Beauty Contest". This year's winners were chosen by the IFLC membership. Contest participants, currently in third through sixth grades, created their own banks and entered them in one of the four contest categories: prettiest, most popular, funniest, and most athletic. Each winner of the four categories receives a prize of $50.00 and the winner's teacher will receive a $50.00 gift card.

Below is a list of some of the events scheduled for April. A list of events throughout Idaho is on the department's website at <http://finance.idaho.gov>. For more information on any of these events or to schedule a presentation, please call Patricia Highley or Jo Ann Lanham of the Idaho Department of Finance at (208) 332-8004 or toll free within Idaho at 1-888-346-3378. All presentations are free and will be scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis.
