Idaho Department of Finance and Governor Little Honor bankcda of Coeur d'Alene for 25 Years of Service to Idahoans

Boise, Idaho...The Idaho Department of Finance (IDOF) and Governor Brad Little recognized bankcda of Coeur d'Alene on June 17, 2026, for 25 years of service to the financial well-being of Idahoans. A Certificate of Appreciation was presented to bankcda during its Board meeting on June 17, 2026. The certificate, jointly signed by Governor Little and IDOF Director Salvador Cruz, recognizes the bank's long-standing service, financial stewardship, and commitment to the communities it serves.

"Community banks chartered and supervised by the Idaho Department of Finance play a vital role in supporting local economies. They provide access to credit, serve small businesses, and offer the kind of personalized financial services that help communities thrive. Our oversight helps ensure these institutions operate safely and soundly for the benefit of Idaho consumers. For 25 years, bankcda has reflected these values, and we are pleased to recognize this milestone," said Salvador Cruz, Director of the Idaho Department of Finance.

Idaho chartered financial institutions play an important role in Idaho's financial landscape by strengthening local economies and providing services tailored to the needs of the communities they serve. IDOF's regulatory oversight supports the safe and sound operation of these institutions for the benefit of Idaho consumers.

bankcda was established on May 17, 2001, in Coeur d'Alene and has grown steadily over the past 25 years to serve communities across North Idaho and the Inland Northwest. The bank operates multiple branches throughout the region under the leadership of President and CEO Wes Veach.

About the Idaho Department of Finance

The Idaho Department of Finance has regulated financial services in Idaho since 1905. Its mission is to safeguard the financial health of Idahoans through the appropriate oversight of diverse financial institutions, the education and protection of consumers, and by fostering sensible innovation in the financial services market.
