STATE FINANCE DEPARTMENT OBTAINS INJUNCTION AGAINST CALIFORNIA STOCK PROMOTER

Stock offered in conjunction with Internet mall promotion

Boise, Idaho . . . Gavin Gee, Director of the Idaho Department of Finance announced that the Honorable Joel D. Horton, District Judge of the Fourth Judicial District Court in Boise, entered a default judgment and permanent injunction in a civil securities lawsuit against Primebuy Network.com, Inc., and one of its officers, Charles Culver. Primebuy Network.com is an Oklahoma corporation operating from Irvine, California and Culver is a resident of California.

The complaint alleged that the defendants offered and sold unregistered securities to Idaho residents and that the defendants violated the registration and anti-fraud provisions of the Idaho Securities Act. The stock was offered in connection with a network marketing program that allowed participants the opportunity to create and own an internet mall. Losses in Idaho are estimated to be in excess of $50,000.

The Court's order finds that the defendants violated the Idaho Securities Act and permanently enjoins the defendants from future violations of the securities laws. It also orders restitution, civil penalties of $50,000, and restricts future business activities in Idaho.
